PRECEPT

Joshua and Ruth
An inductive Bible study for men

Tuesday nights: 6:30—8:00 pm
September 12—November 21

Facilitators: Jonathan and Tom McKee
MidPoint Room G23
Cost: $10/person for materials

Joshua and Ruth are stories of courage, strength, leadership, new beginnings, and love. As we unpack the principles for courageous living, we will not ignore the controversial issues in these stories in their historical context – with special focus on the political issue of “land” as well as war. The role of war for ancient Israel and the role for the church today.

We will seek to interpret the lessons for us today using an inductive method of Bible study. (Although this is not the exact same Precepts study that some of the women are doing, we will be studying the same passages each week.)
